Report on Blood Donation

10th August 2023

22

Social activities are implemented every year through Jagruti Education College. There is always encouragement through the organization to do programs of social interest.

Keeping in mind that the role of educational institutions is important in social formation, social programs are implemented every year through the institution, the program is planned by recognizing the needs of the society, as a part of this, teachers and non-teaching staff of Jagruti College of Education donated blood at Gadhinglaj Lions Blood Bank on 10th August 2023.

The college staff participated in the said blood donation with the intention of providing service to the needy patients through us.

PRINCIPAL

lagnuti Shikshan Shastra Mahavid ralaya Gadhimataj

Cleanliness Mission Report

02/10/2023

Through Jagruti Education College Gadhinglaj, cleaning was done in Aurnal village adjacent to the college for the purpose of celebrating Swachhta Day on 2nd October to mark the birth anniversary of the Father of the Nation, Mahatma Gandhi. On this occasion, college students collected wet waste and dry waste in different ways.

It was taken away from the village for disposal purposes. For this, the Sarpanch, Sub-Sarpanch and all Gram Panchayat members of Aurnal Gram Panchayat got the support of the principal, professors, non-teaching staff of B.Ed College, B.Ed first and second year student teachers participated in this cleanliness drive and organized social activities through the college.

Special school visit report

'Sai Mookbadhir School' in Gadhinglaj City was visited by first-year BEd students from Jagruti College of Education on 01/08/2023.

To comprehend how deaf and dumb children are educated, To comprehend the challenges faced by deaf and mute youngsters, Understanding Deaf School Management, In order to comprehend the Mukbadhir School's curriculum, To comprehend the desires and goals of deaf people, To comprehend the details of the government's accommodations for deaf and dumb students, fully comprehend the Mookdeer School's administrative and pedagogical management, from the application procedure through the final exam.

The B.Ed. first-year student teachers' tour to the deaf and dumb school was organized with the aforementioned goals in mind. First-year B.Ed. students engaged in this interaction with the administration of the school. Recognize their issues. Following that, all of the school's students received bananas and other food from our B. Ed. college.

lannıti Shikshan Shastra Mahavidya Gadhingla

Covid Awareness Program Report

From March 2020 onwards, for the next two years or so, the entire world was plagued by various diseases. There was an atmosphere of fear verywhere. In order to make the society aware of all the issues such as how to take care to avoid the covid disease, what care should be taken after covid, what are its symptoms, what are the remedies, on 4th May 2021, on behalf of Jagruti Shikshanshastra Mahavidyalaya, a google form was prepared regarding questions about covid. was done. About 200 to 300 people responded through that.

It was seen that the purpose of the college to create public awareness about Covid through this medium has been achieved.

Special school visit report

'Sai Mookbadhir School' in Gadhinglaj City was visited by first-year BEd students from Jagruti College of Education on February 5, 2019.

To comprehend how deaf and dumb children are educated, To comprehend the challenges faced by deaf and mute youngsters, Understanding Deaf School Management, In order to comprehend the Mukbadhir School's curriculum, To comprehend the desires and goals of deaf people, To comprehend the details of the government's accommodations for deaf and dumb students, fully comprehend the Mookdeer School's administrative and pedagogical management, from the application procedure through the final exam.

The B.Ed. first-year student teachers' tour to the deaf and dumb school was organized with the aforementioned goals in mind. First-year B.Ed. students engaged in this interaction with the administration of the school. Recognize their issues. Following that, all of the school's students received bananas and other food from our B. Ed.college.

World Yoga Day

21/06/2023

On the occasion of World Yoga Day, an exhibition of posters was held at Jagruti College of Education Gadhinglaj on June 21. Posters were prepared about various yoga postures. Mr. Anil Daddi, Chief Clerk of the College, guided the BEd trainees about the importance of Yoga and also gave various demonstrations of Yoga.

College Principal Dr. SN Shinde expressed his thoughts on this occasion

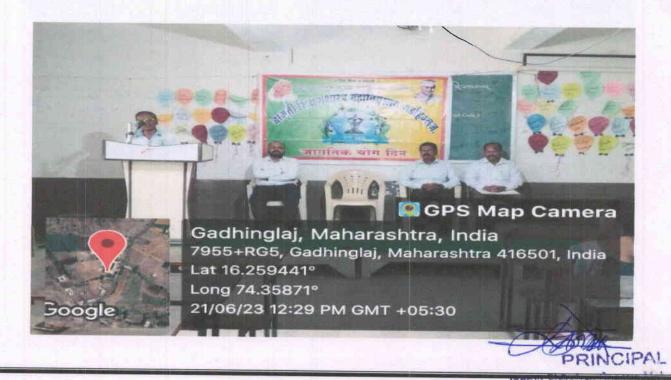

Prof. SB Magdoom

Prof. R.B. Patil

Prof. A.M. Navale

Shri Krishnakant Bamane

Shri Amar Lokhande is also a B.Ed. First and second year trainees were present. The program was moderated by Abdul Attar and the vote of thanks was given by Satish Kamble.

S /Big

:En

📓 GPS Map Camera

lagruti Sixksman Site

ESTD

Gadhinglaj, Maharashtra, India 7955+RG5, Gadhinglaj, Maharashtra 416501, India Lat 16.259718° Long 74.358329° 21/06/23 12:32 PM GMT +05:30

International AIDS Day - Report

Today 01/12/2022 International AIDS Eradication Day was celebrated in Gadhinglaj. On the occasion of this event, the first and second year student teachers of the college prepared A street play. It was performed in front of the District Sub Hospital on Church Road to create awareness about AIDS and its side effects.

At this time, student teacher Mr. Abdul Attar elaborated on the importance of AIDS awareness and scientific approach, social commitment to it. After this, the Honorable Principal also said that it is necessary to create awareness about AIDS and keep family institutions in order to make everyone's family life happy and satisfied. Finally Ms. Aditi Patil thanked everyone.

lagruti Shiks astra Mahavidva

Journalists' Day - Report

07/01/2023

On the occasion of Journalists Day, the Principal of our college Dr. S. N. Shinde, all the faculty and non-teaching staff of the college went to the office of Dainik Sakal, Dainik Pudari, Dainik Lokmat, Dainik Tarun Bharat, Dainik Mahasatta, Dainik Punyanagari at Gadhinglaj and gave bouquets to the journalists of the respective daily, their assistant journalists and office staff, and wished them a Happy Journalist's Day. given Journalist friends were overwhelmed while accepting these personal wishes.

After that, the friends of the newspaper distributors coming to the college were felicitated with a bouquet of flowers and wished them a happy Journalist's Day. At the end there was a joint tea ceremony.

'Save the girl child' street Play report

Our Jagurti Shikshanshastra Mahavidyalaya Gadhinglaj Cultural Department conducted a street play with the slogan "Save the girl child." Student teachers conducted a street drama on January 21, 2023, in Gadhinglaj city's Shivaji Chowk, and Dussehra Chowk.

preventing female foeticide, eliminating superstitions, acknowledging that men and women are equal, and destroying patriarchal culture. Keeping these objectives in mind, a street theatrical attempt was created by the college to introduce the 'Save the Lake' concept to the public.

The street drama was more actively performed by college girls. The college's cultural department, first- and second-year student educators, and others all took part in this street performance.

Jaarut Shikshan Shastra Mahavidvalava CEletallaleurs

Help to Rural Hospital - Report

27/09/2021

Six beds have been donated to a rural hospital in Gadhinglaj for the use of Covid patients through our Vidya Prasarak Mandal. The rural hospital attempting to solve the crisis, like Covid, should get assistance, and everyone in the community should participate in community building and be aware of social services. Through our Vidya Prasarak Mandal, a bed was donated to a rural hospital for this reason.

Our Jagruti Shikshan Shastra mahavidyalay's teaching and nonteaching employees both made financial contributions to the institution as help. Dr. Satish Ghali, the organization's acting president, Vice President Arvindanna Kitturkar, Secretary & Baburao Bhoski Joint Secretary Mr. Gajendra Bandi, Director Class, and Principals from different wings were also present on this occasion. In order to do this, Mrs. Ratnamala Ghali Vahini, the organization's president, received advice.

Gadbinglai

Jagruti College of Education Gadhinglaj, Gadhinglaj Dist. Kolhapur 406 502

Isolation room availability report

The entire world was engulfed by the disease Covid-19 during the period 2019 - 20. The number of covid patients was increasing day by day everywhere. In the meantime, the limits of admitting patients in the hospitals were running out. Beds were not available in hospitals. In that case, a challenge was made through the government to make available Covid rooms. On this occasion, through our Vidya Prasarak Mandal Gadhinglaj, a girls' hostel was made available for Covid rooms. Along with this, some classes in our Jagruti College of Education were made available as isolation rooms.

Five classrooms on the second floor of the college were given as isolation rooms and the said isolation rooms benefited the Covid.

n Shastra Mahavidva

Report on health checkup camp

A health checkup camp was organized on 11 January 2018 in Jagruti Shikshanshastra Mahavidyalay. Specialist doctors from Kedari Redekar Hospital, Gadhinglaj were present for examination in this camp. the first and second year Students teachers were examined In this camp, Doctors not only checked for their health but also guided on how to maintain personal hygiene and good health. The principal of the college Dr. S.N. Shinde inspired for this organizing camp. All the faculty and non-teaching staff of the college worked hard to conduct the camp.

lagruti Shikshan Shastra Mahavidyalaya Gadhinglai

Report of " tree plantation program "

A tree plantation program was organized in Jagruti Colleges of Education on the occasion of Environment Day 5jun 2019. For this program, the working president of the organization Dr. Satish Ghali and other directors were present. Trees were planted in the college premises by all of them. At the time of plantation, the principal of the college Dr. S.N. Shinde gave guidance on the importance of trees in human life. Also, all the professors and non-teaching staff of the college as well as all students took special efforts to carry out this program.

lagruti Shikshan Shastra Mehavidyalava Gadhinglaj

Report of Street play on voting awareness

Jagruti Shikshanshastra Mahavidyalaya , Gadhinglaj, on behalf on January 25, 2020 a street play was presented on the topic of voting awareness. On this day, at Dussehra Chowk in Gadhinglaj city, Shree. Basaveshwar Chowk, Chhatrapati Shivaji Chowk, in front of M.R.High School and also at prominent locations such as Church Road, street plays demonstrated the benefits of voting among voters in the city and why it is important to vote.

All the first and second year student teachers of our college participated in this road play. Spontaneous participation of student teachers in street theater was seen. For this, the principal, professors and non-teaching staff of the college guided and helped the student teachers.

lagruti Stakshan Shastra Mahavidyalavia

agruti Stakshan Shastra Mahavidyalaya Gadhinglaj

Report of Street play on Save the Girl Child

On the occasion of International Women's Day On March 8, 2020, a street play was presented on the theme of Save the Girl. The first and second year student teachers of Jagruti Shikshanshastra Mahavidyalaya performed these street dramas at prominent places in Gadhinglaj city. Street plays were presented on many topics such as the problems arising from the decreasing number of girls in every place, why it is necessary to increase the number of girls for a balanced standard of living of Tomorrow and what is the need of women's power to maintain social, cultural and family balance.

All the student teachers participated spontaneously in this. In the planning of these street plays, the principal of the college Dr. S. N. Shinde, all faculty and non-teaching staff have participated.

Jagnuti Shikshan Shastra Mehavidyalay Gadhinglai

Isolation room availability report

During the years 2019–2022, the illness known as Kovid consumed the entire globe. Everywhere, the number of COVID patients was rising continuously. In the meantime, hospitals were reaching their capacity for patient admission. Hospitals did not have any beds available. In that situation, a request for Covid rooms was made through the government. On this occasion, a girls' hostel was made available for Covid rooms through our Vidya Prasarak Mandal Gadhinglaj.

Additionally, some of the class rooms at our Jagruti College of Education were converted into isolation rooms. Five classrooms on the college's second floor were allocated as isolation rooms, and the Covid patient benefited from these spaces.

lagruti Shikshan Shastra Mahavidyalava Gadhinglai

Relief report to flood victims

15/09/2019

In the year 2019, there was heavy rain in Kolhapur district of Maharashtra state. There was a huge financial loss in this. Many families were destroyed. Due to flash floods, life was disrupted.

All the teachers, non-teaching staff and students of the college collected funds for food distribution and clothes distribution on behalf of our Jagruti Shikshan Shastra College Gadhinglaj for the purpose of helping the flood victims.

From the collected money, food grains and clothes were distributed to the families in the flood affected areas. The program was organized by the idea of Mrs. Ratnamala Ghali Vhini, president of Vidya Prasarak Mandal Gadhinglaj.

Jagruti Shikshan Shastra Mahavidyalaya

Mentoring Adolescent Girls -

program was organized by This our Jagruti ShikshanShastra Mahavidyalaya Gadhinglaj 1st year 2nd semester student teachers. A guidance on health care and measures to be taken for the students of class VIII and IX was organized on 25th September 2019 in Jagruti High School Gadhinglaj under the initiative of School Internship Phase-1. Dr. as a guide for this Kalpana Chindak (MBBS) was present. On this occasion the principal of Jagruti High School Mr. C. S. Mathapati as well as Vice Principal Shri. C. B. Kande, all the staff of the high school, the guide of this group Prof. S. B. Magdum and B.Ed. Students and teachers of the college were present. Detailed information was given on good health habits, problems arising in this age, care and solutions to be taken for the students of class VIII and IX.

Discussed their problems with the students in a chat format. Overall, all the students spontaneously participated in the discussion. At the end, the program was concluded and vote of thanks was given by student teacher Hasurkar.

Godhinglei

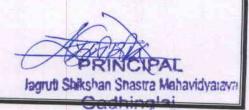

Report on Legal Awareness for Women

Jagruti Shikshanshastra Mahavidyalay arranged workshop on Legal Awareness for Women at Hanuman Mandir Dundge, T.- Gadhinglaj, dated 8th March 2019. Expert Adv. Sanjay Banappa Desai and Adv. Parameshwari Patil Program President Hon. Sarpanch Gram Panchayat Dundge, Principal Attendance - Upasarpanch, All Members Gram Panchayat Dundge, Police Patil Dundge, Village Sevaks, All Women Sisters of the village and other villagers. Adv.Sanjay Desai explained the provisions of the law for the protection of women and also gave detailed information to the women about the protection provided by the law and how to use them properly.

The women sisters present were given detailed information about how we can oppose the injustice and abuse done to us through legal means and how we can fight for our right to justice through examples. At the same time Adv. Parameswari Patil informed how we as a woman are recognized by the law in the society and how we can stand up for our justice rights. All the women present were responding spontaneously.

Presentation of Street Drama on World AIDS Day -Report

On December 1, 2018, World AIDS Eradication Day, the college's cultural department performed a street theater about AIDS in Gadhinglaj city at Bhagava Chowk, Nehru Chowk, Dasara Chowk, and Shivaji Chowk through four distinct groups.

B.Ed. Both first- and second-year education students took part in this presentation. How does AIDS develop? what safeguards must be done to stop AIDS. after AIDS, what precautions should be followed. In this sense, the society received a message via a presentation. Through the cultural division, this program was organized.

lagruti Shikshan Shastra Mahavidyalawa Gadhinglai

Blood Donation Camp Report

On December 25, 2018, the institution held a blood donation drive in celebration the birthday of Mrs. Ratnamala Ghali Vahini, President,Vidya Prasarak Mandal Gadhinglaj. On this occasion, the camp was inaugurated by Dr. S.N. Kolhapure.

For this, Lions Blood Bank Gadhinglaj was invited. All of the institute's directors, the college's president, professors, non-teaching personnel, and firstand second-year student teachers were present during the camp. Blood was donated by students, the principal, and non-teaching staff.

lagrufi Shikshan Shastra Mahavidyarawa Gadhinglai

Journalist Day - Report

The media has a significant impact on how society is shaped. We can read daily local, state, national, and international news through the current newspaper.

Newspapers rely heavily on its reporters. To commemorate the newspaper journalists in Gadhinglaj city on January 6, 2019, the Principal and Professor of the college personally visited all of the offices and expressed their gratitude to the journalists and everyone who works there.

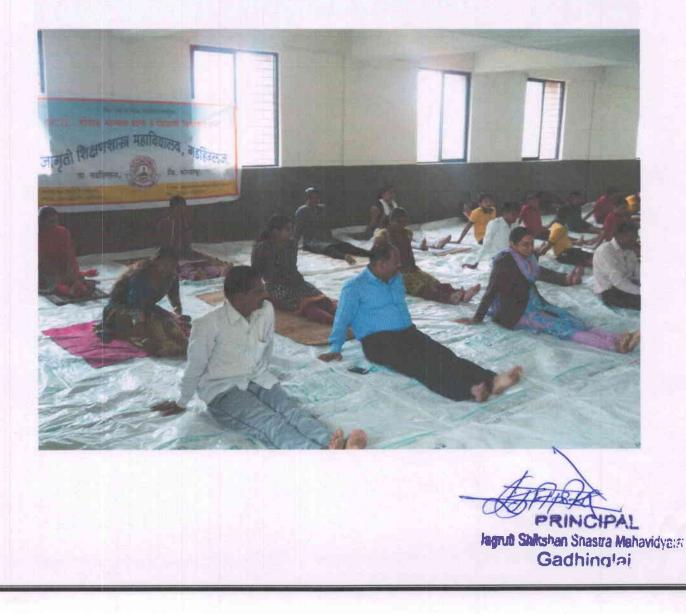

lagruti Shikshan Shastra Mahavidyatava Gadhinglai

World Yoga Day - Report

On the occasion of World Yoga Day on 21st June 2018, an awareness round was organized through the college for the purpose of creating awareness about health. On this occasion, health care, importance of yoga, types of yoga, surya namaskar, along with this a notice board regarding health care was prepared and a Prabhat round was taken out in the cities of Gadhinglaj.

Principal, professors, non-teaching staff and first and second year students were present on this occasion.

Report on the cleanliness mission

Aurnal village near the campus was cleaned in honor of Swachhta Day on October 2, 2018, by Jagruti Education campus Gadhinglaj, in observance of Father of the Nation Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti. This time, dry waste and moist waste were gathered in various methods by college students. It was removed from the village and disposed of for disposal purposes.

The principal, professors, and non-teaching staff of the B.Ed. College supported the Sarpanch, Deputy-Sarpanch, and all Gram Panchayat members of the Aurnal Gram Panchayat in this endeavor. B.Ed. first- and second-year Student, Teachers also organized social activities through the college and took part in the cleanliness drive.

lagruti Shikshan Shastra Mahavidyataya Gadhinglai

Slum area Visit – Report

Dt - 10-02-2019

As per the project of B.Ed. the fourth semester's students "Community Oriented Project" demonstration, a group of students and teachers went to the slum on Church Road in Gadhinglaj to see the economic, social, and educational study of the residents there. interacted with schoolchildren and children from disadvantaged backgrounds to understand their economic and social issues.

Parents were advised to send youngsters who were not receiving an education to school. The student instructors gave the kids in the slums information about the school's environment, curriculum, and extracurricular activities in an effort to get them excited about going to school. The children there delighted as soon as they heard this. Everyone received a snack at the same moment. Overall, while carrying out this project, the student teachers learned about the suffering and issues faced by slum inhabitants as well as the viewpoint of society.

lagruti Shikshan Shastra Mahavidyalawa Gadhing'aj

Report on "Study of Attitudes of Parents of Class X Students".

10/02/2019

B.Ed. students under the "Society Oriented Project" Demonstration of Part Two Semester Four took part in the theme "Study of Attitudes of Parents of Class 10th Students" Class 10th students from different villages were searched and parents of these Class 10th students were interviewed. During this interview, our students of B.Ed. observed that the parents' expectations from their children, facilities provided for studies, planning of other extra hours, educational environment at home, student's attitude, parents' financial situation, parents' expectations from the school were asked. The answers of each parents of the student were different. This showed that everyone had a different point of view.

Parents expecting higher marks were counselled. Along with this, they were guided about the educational opportunities after class 10th. B.Ed. Second year students and teachers participated in this activity.

lagruti Shikshan Shastra Mahavidyalaya

Gadhinglai

'Save the girl child' street theater report

Our Jagurti Shikshanshastra Mahavidyalaya Gadhinglaj Cultural Department conducted a street play with the slogan "Save the girl child." Student teachers conducted a street drama on January 21, 2019, in Gadhinglaj city's Nehru Chowk, Bhagwa Chowk, Shivaji Chowk, and Dussehra Chowk.

preventing female foeticide, eliminating superstitions, acknowledging that men and women are equal, and destroying patriarchal culture. Keeping these objectives in mind, a street theatrical attempt was created by the college to introduce the 'Save the Lake' concept to the public.

The street drama was more actively performed by college girls. The college's cultural department, first- and second-year student educators, and others all took part in this street performance.

lagnuti Shikshan Shastra Mahavidyalaya Gadhinglai

Special School (School for Mentally Retarded Children) Visitation Report

The 'School of Handicapped Children' in Bhadgaon was visited by students from Jagruti Shikshanshastra Mahavidyalay B.Ed. 2nd year on February 15, 2019.

To comprehend how children with mental retardation are educated, Recognizing the challenges faced by children with mental retardation, Knowing how a school for the mentally disabled is run,

Recognizing the Curriculum of Students in Schools for Mentally Retarded, Recognizing the circumstances of children with mental retardation,

To comprehend the details of the government's accommodations for pupils with mental disabilities, Management of the admissions procedure for schools for the mentally impaired and knowledge of office operations. The visit to the school for mentally retarded students was organized for the B.Ed. 2nd year student instructors with these goals in mind. Second-year B.Ed. students interacted with the school administration on this particular occasion. concurrently engaged in conversation with the school's students. Recognize their issues. Following that, all of the school's students were given a snack by our B.Ed. students and the college.

lagniti Shikshan Shastra Mahavidyarana

Mission to Clean Up the Bhairi Mandir Premises - Report

The day after Bhairi Yatra, on 18/02/2018, a cleanliness campaign was held to remove the trash from the temple grounds.

A systematic cleaning operation was carried out on the day of the Yatra to dispose of the wet and dry garbage produced in the temple grounds separately. On this occasion, the principal, professors, nonteaching staff, and first- and second-year student teachers from the B.Ed. program were all present in the college.

The aforementioned cleanliness program was put into action as a kind of charitable giving.

